

160th commemoration of the Battle of Cedar Mountain

sponsored by Friends of Cedar Mountain Battlefield & American Battlefield Trust

Saturday, August 6

9:00 am Activities open: military encampments, period photographer, civilian, signal corps & cavalry stations, children's activities, author & organization booths, silent auction

9:30 am Artillery demonstration

10:30 am Infantry demonstration

11:30 am Civil War music: 73rd Ohio Volunteer Infantry Regiment Band

1:00 pm Talk by Michael Block, author of "The Carnage was Fearful," on the attack of Federal General Crawford's brigade (meet at Crittenden Gate)

3:00 pm Battle demonstration: the attack of the 28th New York Infantry

4:30 pm Civil War music: 73rd Ohio Volunteer Infantry Regiment Band

5:00 pm Activities close

Sunday, August 7

9:00 am Activities open to public (see listing above)

9:30 am Memorial service for the fallen
Presentation of the Colors
The National Anthem
Reading of the names of the fallen
March off of the colors
Remarks by Diane Logan, President of Friends of Cedar Mountain & Jack Frazier
Music: 73rd Ohio Volunteer Infantry Regiment Band

11:00 am Battle demonstration: attack of the 7th Ohio Infantry

12:00 pm Civil War music: 73rd Ohio Volunteer Infantry Regiment Band

12:30 pm Announcement of winners of silent auction

1:00 pm Activities close

Our thanks to:

Culpeper County Sheriff's Department
Culpeper County Volunteer Rescue Squad
VFW Post #2524 Culpeper VA

Culpeper Tourism | Friends of Culpeper Battlefields
Bernard & Jack Inskeep | Al Cooper, AJ Productions

